Finland – Films

Näkymätön Elina (Klaus Härö, Finland 2002)

Elina: as if I wasn't there

The story is set in rural Sweden of the early 1950's when the main character Elina goes back to school after recovering from tuberculosis, the same disease that killed her father a few years earlier. At school she has to face her new schoolmistress Mrs Holm who bullies her because of her Finnish-speaking family background and because she thinks Elina questions her authority.

Så som i himmelen (Kay Pollak, Sweden 2004)

As it is in Heaven

The famous international conductor Daniel Dareus returns to his hometown in the north of Sweden after a heart attack due to his stressed professional life. As a boy he was bullied by some of his classmates and the trauma rises to the surface when he has to encounter Conny, one of the worst bullies. Reluctantly he starts leading the local church choir and his music opens the hearts of the members of the choir suffering from different kind of oppression; Gabriella has an abusive and violent husband, Tore is bullied because of his slow mind and Holmfried is bullied because of his bodyweight. But Daniel also finds the love of his life in the warmhearted Lena.

Leijonasydän (Dome Karukoski, Finland 2013)

Heart of a Lion

The film tells the story about a Neo-Nazi named Teppo who falls in love with a woman called Sari. Later he finds out that Sari's son from a previous marriage is black. This fact leads to trouble with his fellow Neo-Nazis, especially his half-brother Harri.

Drømmen/Martins dröm (Niels Arden Oplev, Denmark 2006)

We shall overcome

The story is a drama about a boy who is inspired by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. And challenges repressive school authority in 1969 in Denmark.
