

YARD GAME

On this ball game, there are two sides and they are both bullies. And there are few students (victims) between these two bully teams. With a ball they try to hit the victims and the victims try to get rid of their ball attacks. If the victims catch the ball with their hands without dropping the ball on floor, then the bully who throws the ball becomes victim. and this goes on and on till the end. Each group tries to include the other group into his side.
